PART II.

Notifications by High Court, Comptroller General, etc.

GAZETTE OF INDIA.

NOTICE.

The 25th March 1913.

On and after the 5th April till further notice, Parts I, IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India and the Weather and Crop Report will be published at Simla. After the 29th March all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901:—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 p.m. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICES.THE PATENT OFFICE, 1, COUNCIL HOUSE STREET, CALCUTTA.

Public room, open 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

1. All communications relating to applications for patents and for registration of designs under the Indian Patents and Designs Act (II of 1911), or in continuation of applications under the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888) should be addressed to the Controller of Patents and Designs, 1, Council House Street, Calcutta. Documents sent by post should be carefully packed.

2. Directions for the guidance of inventors and others are given in the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911 (price, 10 annas), and in the Indian Patents and Designs Rules, 1912 (price, 2 annas). These should be consulted before an application is made to the Controller.

3. Advice. The Patent Office cannot undertake (1) to give opinions on the interpretation of Patent Law, or on the advisability of protecting inventions and designs nor their infringement; (2) to make searches in respect of information available in the public room; (3) to recommend any particular agent; or (4) to assist in the disposal of inventions. Applicants are warned that the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, is in force in British India only, and patents granted under it do not extend to the United Kingdom or any of the British possessions. The International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property does not include India. Applications for patents in countries other than India should be made to the patent offices in the countries concerned.

4. Fees are payable in cash and must be received in the Patent Office within the time allowed by the Acts. When cheques are offered in payment of fees, it must be clearly understood that the office cannot hold itself responsible for any delay that may occur in the collection of cash on the cheques; any cheque not payable in Calcutta is subject to commission. In cases where it is not possible to have the fees handed in at the Patent Office, it is preferable to send them by money-order or postal order payable at Calcutta to the Controller of Patents and Designs, and to advise him that they have been so sent. Stamps will not be received in payment of fees.

5. Trade and property marks and names are not registered and medicines are not patented under the Indian Patents and Designs Act. There is no provision of Law in British India for their registration.

6. Printed Specifications of applications, which have been accepted, are published within about three weeks after acceptance has been notified in the Gazette of India. These specifications can be purchased at the Patent Office at a uniform price of 8 annas per copy; and may be seen free of charge, together with other publications of the Patent Office, at the following places:—

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE CORONATION DURBAR AND OF THE VISIT OF THEIR IMPERIAL MAJESTIES THE KING- EMPEROR AND QUEEN-EMPRESS TO INDIA, 1911-12.

To meet the repeated demands of the public, the Government of India have decided to publish a complete and authoritative account of the proceedings connected with the visit of Their Imperial Majesties to India and with the Coronation Durbar of December 1911.

This book will be compiled from the official records, and will contain lists of all persons taking part in the celebrations and ceremonies. There will also be numerous illustrations, portraits, maps, plans, etc.

It will be published in two editions, a popular one in a cloth binding at a cost not exceeding Rs. 7-8, and a very limited edition de luxe, which will contain a list of the subscribers, at a cost of about Rs. 250.

A translation of the popular edition will be made in Urdu and possibly in other languages also if the demand is sufficient.

It is expected that the work will be ready for publication in about six months' time, names are still being registered for the various editions, and application should be made to the Superintendent, Official History of the Durbar, Foreign Department, Simla.

No. 5045 Revenue.—In accordance with the provisions of section 158 of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887, the following draft of a rule which the Chief Commissioner proposes to make under section 155 (1) (d) of the said Act, prescribing the fees payable for searches and copies, is published for general information. The draft rule will be taken into consideration on or after 15th August 1913, together with any objections or suggestions which may be received before that date :—

RULE.

The fees payable for searches and copies supplied by the Copying Department of the Deputy Commissioners' Office shall be as follows :—

(A) In the case of copies supplied to applicants who obtain their copies in person.

(a) Ordinary fees—

	English. As.	Vernacular. As.
First 200 words or under	4	4
Every additional 100 words or fraction thereof	4	2

These rates include the cost of paper, which will be supplied by Government.

(b) Special fees—

For field maps, boundary maps and tabular work, a special fee will be fixed by the officer in charge, but the fee should always be a multiple of two annas.

(c) Urgent fees—

Applicants for "urgent" copies to take precedence of other copying work shall pay a uniform extra charge of one rupee.

(d) Search fees.—

If the officer in charge of the copying agency considers that, owing to the defective information supplied by the applicant, the search for the document has involved an unreasonable amount of trouble on the record-room staff, he may on the application of the record-room staff impose a search fee of eight annas.

(B) In the case of copies supplied through the value-payable post.

(a) Ordinary, special, urgent and search fees as above prescribed.

(b) Agency fees.

Two annas per application.

(c) Court fees and stamp fees.—

The amount actually spent on applicant's behalf on the application and on the copy supplied.

(d) Postal charges.—

The amount actually spent on applicant's behalf on postal charges and value-payable post commission.

GAZETTE OF INDIA.

NOTICE.

The 25th March 1913.

On and after the 5th April till further notice, Parts I, IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India and the Weather and Crop Report will be published at Simla. After the 29th March all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901:—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICES.THE PATENT OFFICE, 1, COUNCIL HOUSE STREET, CALCUTTA.

Public room, open 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

1. All communications relating to applications for patents and for registration of designs under the Indian Patents and Designs Act (II of 1911), or in continuation of applications under the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888) should be addressed to the Controller of Patents and Designs, 1, Council House Street, Calcutta. Documents sent by post should be carefully packed.

2. Directions for the guidance of inventors and others are given in the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911 (price, 10 annas), and in the Indian Patents and Designs Rules, 1912 (price, 2 annas). These should be consulted before an application is made to the Controller.

3. Advice. The Patent Office cannot undertake (1) to give opinions on the interpretation of Patent Law, or on the advisability of protecting inventions and designs nor their infringement; (2) to make searches in respect of information available in the public room; (3) to recommend any particular agent; or (4) to assist in the disposal of inventions. Applicants are warned that the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, is in force in British India only, and patents granted under it do not extend to the United Kingdom or any of the British possessions. The International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property does not include India. Applications for patents in countries other than India should be made to the patent offices in the countries concerned.

4. Fees are payable in cash and must be received in the Patent Office within the time allowed by the Acts. When cheques are offered in payment of fees, it must be clearly understood that the office cannot hold itself responsible for any delay that may occur in the collection of cash on the cheques; any cheque not payable in Calcutta is subject to commission. In cases where it is not possible to have the fees handed in at the Patent Office, it is preferable to send them by money-order or postal order payable at Calcutta to the Controller of Patents and Designs, and to advise him that they have been so sent. Stamps will not be received in payment of fees.

5. Trade and property marks and names are not registered and medicines are not patented under the Indian Patents and Designs Act. There is no provision of Law in British India for their registration.

6. Printed Specifications of applications, which have been accepted, are published within about three weeks after acceptance has been notified in the Gazette of India. These specifications can be purchased at the Patent Office at a uniform price of 8 annas per copy; and may be seen free of charge, together with other publications of the Patent Office, at the following places:—

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE CORONATION DURBAR AND OF THE VISIT OF THEIR IMPERIAL MAJESTIES THE KING- EMPEROR AND QUEEN-EMPRESS TO INDIA, 1911-12.

To meet the repeated demands of the public, the Government of India have decided to publish a complete and authoritative account of the proceedings connected with the visit of Their Imperial Majesties to India and with the Coronation Durbar of December 1911.

This book will be compiled from the official records, and will contain lists of all persons taking part in the celebrations and ceremonies. There will also be numerous illustrations, portraits, maps, plans, etc.

It will be published in two editions, a popular one in a cloth binding at a cost not exceeding Rs. 7-8, and a very limited edition de luxe, which will contain a list of the subscribers, at a cost of about Rs. 250.

A translation of the popular edition will be made in Urdu and possibly in other languages also if the demand is sufficient.

It is expected that the work will be ready for publication in about six months' time, names are still being registered for the various editions, and application should be made to the Superintendent, Official History of the Durbar, Foreign Department, Simla.

No 5273-Education.—The following bye-laws framed by the Municipal Committee of Delhi under the provisions of sections 198(e) (x), of Act III of 1911 (Punjab Municipal Act), regarding Controlling and Regulating the use and management of Burial and Burning grounds within the Municipal limits of Delhi, are approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of the Delhi Province, and are hereby published for general information.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. No person shall bury, or cause to be buried, the body of any person or, being the owner or person in charge of a burial ground, shall permit a body to be buried in a burial ground otherwise than in accordance with the following conditions :—

- (a) the body shall be interred within six hours after its arrival at the burial ground. The period of six hours may be extended to eight hours in special cases where delay is due to rockiness of the ground ;
- (b) the body shall not be buried in any grave in which another body has been interred during the last ten years ;
- (c) the grave shall not be less than six feet deep if not constructed of masonry, or four feet deep if constructed of masonry, and the body shall be buried not less than two feet from any other body interred during the last ten years.

2. No person shall, without the sanction of the Municipal Committee, exhume a dead body or re-open a grave.

3. If the Municipal Committee so requires the owner of every burial ground shall enclose it with walls, fences or hedges, to the satisfaction of the Municipal Committee.

4. No one shall burn the dead body of any person or cause a dead body to be burnt or, being the owner or person in charge of a burning ghat, permit a dead body to be burnt otherwise than in accordance with the following :—

- (a) the body shall be burnt within six hours after its arrival at the burning ghat ;
- (b) no part of the body shall remain unconsumed unless in any case the rules or custom of religion demand that the whole or a portion of the corpse shall be thrown into the river ;
- (c) no part of the body except the astites shall be removed from the ghat until it is completely reduced to ashes.

5. No person shall remove wood, coal or other fuel that has been employed in the pyre from the burning ground. The owner or person in charge of the ground must see that all such wood, coal or other fuel is reduced to ashes.

6. Any person who commits a breach of any of the above bye-laws shall be punishable, on conviction by a Magistrate, with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

NOTE.—These bye-laws do not apply to Christian cemeteries regulated under the orders of the Government of India.

NOTICE.

The 25th March 1913.

On and after the 5th April till further notice, Parts I, IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India and the Weather and Crop Report will be published at Simla. After the 29th March all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901:—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1876, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 p.m. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICES.THE PATENT OFFICE, 1, COUNCIL HOUSE STREET, CALCUTTA.

Public room, open 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

1. All communications relating to applications for patents and for registration of designs under the Indian Patents and Designs Act (II of 1911), or in continuation of applications under the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888) should be addressed to the Controller of Patents and Designs, 1, Council House Street, Calcutta. Documents sent by post should be carefully packed.

2. Directions for the guidance of inventors and others are given in the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911 (price, 10 annas), and in the Indian Patents and Designs Rules, 1912 (price, 2 annas). These should be consulted before an application is made to the Controller.

3. Advice. The Patent Office cannot undertake (1) to give opinions on the interpretation of Patent Law, or on the advisability of protecting inventions and designs nor their infringement; (2) to make searches in respect of information available in the public room; (3) to recommend any particular agent; or (4) to assist in the disposal of inventions. Applicants are warned that the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, is in force in British India only, and patents granted under it do not extend to the United Kingdom or any of the British possessions. The International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property does not include India. Applications for patents in countries other than India should be made to the patent offices in the countries concerned.

4. Fees are payable in cash and must be received in the Patent Office within the time allowed by the Acts. When cheques are offered in payment of fees, it must be clearly understood that the office cannot hold itself responsible for any delay that may occur in the collection of cash on the cheques; any cheque not payable in Calcutta is subject to commission. In cases where it is not possible to have the fees handed in at the Patent Office, it is preferable to send them by money-order or postal order payable at Calcutta to the Controller of Patents and Designs, and to advise him that they have been so sent. Stamps will not be received in payment of fees.

5. Trade and property marks and names are not registered and medicines are not patented under the Indian Patents and Designs Act. There is no provision of Law in British India for their registration.

6. Printed Specifications of applications, which have been accepted, are published within about three weeks after acceptance has been notified in the Gazette of India. These specifications can be purchased at the Patent Office at a uniform price of 8 annas per copy; and may be seen free of charge, together with other publications of the Patent Office, at the following places:—

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE CORONATION DURBAR AND OF THE VISIT OF THEIR IMPERIAL MAJESTIES THE KING- EMPEROR AND QUEEN-EMPRESS TO INDIA, 1911-12.

To meet the repeated demands of the public, the Government of India have decided to publish a complete and authoritative account of the proceedings connected with the visit of Their Imperial Majesties to India and with the Coronation Durbar of December 1911.

This book will be compiled from the official records, and will contain lists of all persons taking part in the celebrations and ceremonies. There will also be numerous illustrations, portraits, maps, plans, etc.

It will be published in two editions, a popular one in a cloth binding at a cost not exceeding Rs. 7-8, and a very limited edition de luxe, which will contain a list of the subscribers, at a cost of about Rs. 250.

A translation of the popular edition will be made in Urdu and possibly in other languages also if the demand is sufficient.

It is expected that the work will be ready for publication in about six months' time, names are still being registered for the various editions, and application should be made to the Superintendent, Official History of the Durbar, Foreign Department, Simla.

CHIEF COMMISSIONER, DELHI.NOTIFICATIONS.

Delhi, the 12th July 1918.

No. 5361-Education.—The following bye-laws framed by the Municipal Committee of Delhi under the provisions of Section 188(A) of Act III of 1911 (Punjab Municipal Act), regarding licensing of premises used as stables for horses, ponies and mules, within the Municipal limits of Delhi, are approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of the Delhi Province, and are hereby published for general information.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. In these bye-laws "animals" means horses, ponies and mules.
"Stables" includes sarais, compounds and mews.
"Occupier" means the person who is responsible for the letting or sub-letting of the premises to the persons in charge of animals, and may include the owner.
2. No person shall allow to be stabled at any one time more than six animals in stables of which he is the occupier unless he has received a license from the Committee in such behalf.
3. Only one license shall be necessary for stables situate in an area which is a unit of house tax assessment.
4. The fee for such license shall be R10.
5. Every license for a stable issued under these bye-laws, shall be in such form as the Municipal Committee may from time to time prescribe and shall include the following conditions, namely :—
 - (a) The license shall be for one year, terminating on 31st March.
 - (b) No person shall live or cook food in any stable, nor shall there be any opening from any stable likely to permit direct ventilation therefrom into any kitchen or place of human habitation.

Provided that notwithstanding this restriction one person in immediate charge of any animal may be permitted to use the stable or stables for his habitation and for cooking his own food, and, if a carriage or other vehicle used for horse or poney-traction is also kept in such stable or if more than one animal is kept in the same stable, one coachman or driver for each such vehicle kept therein, and one person for each animal kept therein, shall, if he is in charge of such vehicle, or animal, be permitted to use the stable for his habitation and for cooking food for consumption by himself or any person in immediate charge of any such vehicle, horse or pony in such stable.

(c) Every stable shall be well paved with asphalt, stone, brick on edge with cement pointing or flag stones set in cement, or with some other suitable impervious material approved by the Municipal Committee.

(d) The floor of every stable shall incline to a channel or gutter sloping towards and draining directly into a sewer, or, if there be no sewer, into a cess-pool but not into an open drain.

Such cess-pool shall be constructed of bricks set in cement and cement plastered, or of some suitable impervious material approved of by the Municipal Committee, and shall be so constructed as not to admit rain water its contents shall be easily removable.

(e) The slope of the floor shall be made so as to incline away from the heads of animals.

(f) The ventilation shall be such as Municipal Committee considers sufficient.

(g) The interior fittings of every stable shall be so constructed and placed as to provide for each animal kept in the stable a clear superficial floor space of at least forty square feet and a clear lateral space of at least five feet.

(h) No person shall refuse to allow any officer appointed by the Committee in this behalf to inspect any licensed stable or any place in which it is suspected that animals are kept, at any reasonable time.

(i) Every holder of a license shall cause the premises to be kept clean and cause all litter, filth and rubbish and the contents of all cess-pools to be removed from the premises daily before 10 A.M. Such litter, filth, or other material must be collected and stored in proper dust-bins or receptacles prior to its final removal.

Provided that nothing in this Section will apply to any stable where arrangements have been made to the satisfaction of the Committee for the daily disposal of all such filth and other material by incineration or otherwise.

6. No person shall transfer, or take over from any other person, a license without notifying the same in writing to the Secretary of the Municipal Committee.

7. No person will be required to comply with the conditions (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) of bye-law 5 before the expiry of six months from the date of coming into force of these bye-laws.

8. Every person committing a breach of bye-law 1 or 6 or of any of the conditions of the license shall be liable, on conviction by a Magistrate, to a fine of fifty rupees, and if the breach is a continuing one to a fine which may amount to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

NOTE.—These bye-laws shall apply only to public stables where horses are kept for hire until such time as the Committee shall by resolution extend them to private stables.

No. 5370-P. W.—The Chief Commissioner is pleased to appoint the Chief Engineer of Delhi as Secretary to the Chief Commissioner in the Public Works Department.

No. 5374-Education.—Whereas the Municipal Committee of Delhi has applied to the Local Government under the provisions of Section 58 of Act III of 1911, and whereas it appears to the Chief Commissioner, Delhi, that the land is required by Government for a public purpose, namely, for erection of market, it is hereby declared that the undermentioned land is required for the said purpose.

The declaration is made under the provisions of Section 6 of Act I of 1894, and under Section 7 of the said Act, the Deputy Commissioner, Delhi, is hereby directed to take order for the acquisition of the ownership of the said land.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. No marketable commodities shall be placed or exposed for sale in a Municipal market in such a manner as to cause any obstruction in any of the passages or roads of the market.

2. No vendor in any Municipal market, and no servant of any vendor shall cook in any part of such market (including any shop or stall), except in places specially set apart for the purpose by the Health Officer of the Municipal Committee.

3. No person shall bring any vehicle or live animal inside a Municipal market. Dogs found inside the market may be seized and handed over to the Police.

4. Every vendor in any Municipal market shall cause his shop or stall to be kept in a cleanly condition, and shall allow no refuse or garbage to remain about it but shall from time to time, as often as occasion may require during each day on which such shop or stall is open, cause all garbage and refuse to be placed in the receptacle which is provided by the Municipal Committee.

5. No person shall light a fire in a Municipal market without the sanction of the Market Superintendent and every shop-keeper and stall-holder in a Municipal market shall cause to be extinguished every fire or light in his shop or stall before he leaves it unoccupied.

6. No person shall expose for sale in a Municipal market any food which is in a decayed condition or which is noxious or deleterious to human health, and the Health Officer of the Municipal Committee may order any such food to be destroyed.

7. No person shall create any disturbance within any Municipal market.

8. No shop-keeper or stall-holder in any Municipal market shall keep his shop open beyond the hours fixed by the Municipal Committee as the hours of business for the market.

9. No unauthorised person shall remain in any Municipal market during the times fixed by the Municipal Committee as the times of closing.

10. All tenants, occupiers, vendors and their servants and agents in any market shall obey all reasonable orders of the Health Officer of the Municipal Committee.

11. Every Municipal market shall be kept clean and sanitary and must be thoroughly washed and flushed daily by servants of the Municipal Committee employed for the purpose.

12. Any authorised servant of the Municipal Committee or any Police Officer may expel from the market premises any person committing a breach of any of the bye-laws 1 to 10.

13. Any person committing a breach of any of bye-laws 1 to 10 inclusive shall be liable on conviction by a Magistrate to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and if the breach is a continuing one to a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

No. 5424-Education.—The following bye-laws framed by the Municipal Committee of Delhi under the provisions of Sections 138 (a) and 199 of Act III of 1911 (Punjab Municipal Act), to regulate the posting of Bills and Advertisements, within the Municipal limits of Delhi, are approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of the Delhi Province, and are hereby published for general information.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. No person shall, without the sanction of the competent authority, stick or cause to stick bills, advertisements or notices of any kind upon any building or land or immoveable property of any description, which is the property of His Majesty or of the Municipal Committee or which is under the control of the Municipal Committee.

2. General permission is given to the public to stick bills and notices free of charge on the Municipal notice boards erected at various places within Municipal limits, but in the event of this privilege being abused, the Municipal Committee retains power to withdraw such permission from any individual or company deemed by the Municipal Committee to be at fault.

3. Any person committing a breach of the bye-law 1 shall be liable, on conviction by a Magistrate, to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

No. 5427-Education.—The following bye-laws framed by the Municipal Committee of Delhi under the provisions of Sections 167 and 158 (e) (i) and 199 of Act III of 1911 (Punjab Municipal Act), regarding the regulation and licensing of Pig Slaughter Houses, within the Municipal limits of Delhi, are approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of the Delhi Province, and are hereby published for general information.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. (a) No person shall keep a slaughter-house for pig in the Municipal area except in premises which have been licensed by the Municipal Committee to that effect.

(b) No person shall keep a slaughter-house for the slaughter of pig intended for sale in the Municipal area at any place within the distance of two miles from the Municipal limits except in premises which have been licensed by the Municipal Committee to that effect.

2. The license shall be in such form as the Committee may from time to time prescribe, and shall include the following conditions:—

(a) the slaughtering premises shall be properly fenced in, paved and drained to the satisfaction of the Health Officer;

(b) arrangements shall be made for the disposal of all offal and filth to the satisfaction of the Health Officer;

(c) no person shall knowingly bring into the premises any diseased, unsound or emaciated pigs or pigs with young.

(d) all carcasses shall be removed properly covered up by a clean cloth or in such other fashion as the Health Officer may approve;

(e) no person affected with leprosy, sores, or any other skin disease, shall enter into the premises.

(f) the licensee shall always keep a copy of the license available for inspection on the slaughter-house premises.

3. The license shall be for one year terminating on the 31st of March, and a fee of twenty rupees shall be charged for each license.

4. The Committee may cancel or suspend any license for a breach of any of the conditions on which it is issued.

5. Any person committing a breach of bye-law 1 or of any of the conditions of the license shall be liable, on conviction by a Magistrate, to a fine which may amount to fifty rupees, and, if the breach is a recurring one, to a further fine which may amount to five rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

No. 5430-Education.—The following bye-laws framed by the Municipal Committee of Delhi under the provisions of Sections 188 (4) and 199 of Act III of 1911 (Punjab Municipal Act), regarding the letting off of fire-arms, fire-works and bombs, within the Municipal limits of Delhi, are approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of the Delhi Province, and are hereby published for general information.

The bye-laws will come into force six weeks after the date of publication of the notification.

BYE-LAWS.

1. No person shall let off fire-arms, fire-works or bombs without having previously obtained a license in writing from the Superintendent of Police.

Provided that this restriction will not apply to anything done under Military authority or to the letting off of fire-works on the occasion of marriages and public festivals.

2. Any person, committing a breach of the above bye-law, or of any of the conditions of the license issued by the Superintendent of Police, will be liable, on conviction by a Magistrate, to a fine which may amount to fifty rupees.

NOTICE.

The 25th March 1913.

On and after the 5th April till further notice, Parts I, IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India and the Weather and Crop Report will be published at Simla. After the 29th March all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 p.m. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.
